

I strongly oppose any further media consolidation and corporate ownership of the news. The news needs to be fair, unbiased, serving public interest and the publics' "need to know", not corporate interests. Any plans for further consolidation is intolerable.
Thank you, Arlene Lowney